CONFESSION OF SIN (unison)

Beverly A. Bartlett

O Lord, the sacrifice that is acceptable to you is a humble spirit and an open ear, for you speak to a humble and contrite heart. To those who bring thanksgiving as their sacrifice, you give your salvation.

We confess that we have loved neither you nor our neighbors as we ought, and are indeed sinners. Do not, O Lord, withhold your mercy; let your steadfast love and faithfulness keep us safe forever. Evils have encompassed us from within and from without; our iniquities overtake us and we cannot see rightly. Our hearts sink.

O Lord, come to our assistance; O Lord, hasten to help us that all who seek you may rejoice and be glad in you. Take thought for us, O Lord, and be our help and our deliverer. Do not delay, for we do not live without you, you who are our God.

(Silence for personal confession)

GOSPEL LESSON

Luke 10:1-11, 16-20
(nrsv, page 66 NT)

Dr. Springsted

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated on the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

DISTRIBUTION

When the pastors take their serving places, please come forward, using the center aisle, beginning with the front row. Hold out your hands, one open palm placed on the other, and bread will be placed in your hand. For rice bread, please take it yourself, exercising care not to touch other pieces. You may eat the bread and move to the cup of wine to drink or dip your bread before eating, or move to the cup of juice and dip your bread, exercising care not to touch the liquid or cup with your fingers. Those unable to come forward will be served in their pews. If not communing, please remain in your pew in prayer.

PRAYERS FOR HEALING AND WHOLENESS

Once you have communed, you may return to your pew, or you may join one of the pastors in the side transepts for anointing, laying on of hands and prayers for yourself or for another. Thereafter you may return to your pew.

The musical notation is written on a single staff in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a time signature of 2/4. The melody consists of a series of eighth and quarter notes, ending with a whole note chord. Below the staff, the lyrics are aligned with the notes: "(Organ) A - men, A - men, A - men." The word "A" in each phrase has a dash underneath it, and the final "men" of each phrase is underlined.

*POSTLUDE Nachspiel (1831) Felix Mendelssohn

Welcome!

We're glad you've joined us for worship today. We pray that you experience Christ in our midst, and that his presence will sustain you in the week ahead. We invite you to place your name and contact information on one of the pew pads. If our pastors can assist you in some special way, indicate this in the space provided and they will be in touch with you. If you are considering becoming Christian or looking for a church home, our pastors would be delighted to talk with you about it. We urge you to consider becoming a member of this congregation and hope you will make MAPC your church home in this city.

Have children? Children and families are always welcome in the Sanctuary to worship. Children three and under may be taken to the Nursery on the 4th Floor or remain with their parents. The Narthex or the Children's Library, adjacent to the Sanctuary, are also available for families and have speakers that provide audio of the service.

MAPC Mission Statement

The mission of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church is to bring people into the transforming presence of Jesus Christ through worship, teaching the Word, Christian nurture, and ministry in and to the world. As Christ's ministers, our members are striving to build a community of God's love, justice and mercy, trusting God to lead us into faithfulness.
