Epiphany Sunday
January 6, 2019 • 9 & 11:15am

921 Madison Avenue • mapc.com • 212.288.8920

Welcome to Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church

Whether you are a first-time visitor or a long-time member . . .

Whether you are new to or uncertain about this whole idea of church . . .

Whether you grew up Presbyterian or Baptist or Jewish or agnostic . . .

Whether you came with a friend or just wandered in accidentally . . .

Whether you are in search of comfort or wanting to be challenged . . .

Whatever reason brought you to worship today, you are welcome here and you have made us better by being present with us. In the midst of a big and busy city, we are a church that takes seriously Jesus' instructions to love God, love one another, and love our neighbors. Our worship style is traditional and true to our Reformed heritage. At the same time, we seek to bring our faith into conversation with the world around us and the events of our lives.

After worship, we gather in our Church House for fellowship, coffee, and cookies. Please join us. We think you'll find us to be a friendly and approachable group of people trying our best to live like Jesus teaches. But if you're looking for a perfect church, we're not it. We don't always get it right. Rather, we're a group of imperfect people who understand how much we all need grace in our lives. And we believe that God's love, which never gives up and never lets go, is for everyone. Including you.

There is a place for you here. We're delighted you've joined us today.

Rev. Jenny M. McDevitt
Senior Pastor

Children Are Always Welcome

Your children are always welcome here at MAPC, and they are welcome to stay with you in worship. Little ones can't help but make a bit of noise from time to time. If it is your preference, however, children three and under may be taken to the Nursery on the 4th floor. The Narthex and the Children's Library are also available. Speakers provide audio of the service.

Membership and More Information

For those interested in exploring the possibility of membership or learning more about who we are and what we do, we periodically host a "Tell Me More About MAPC" conversation. The next gathering will be held January 12, 2019, at 9 am in the Phillips Lounge. Childcare provided with advance request. RSVP to Lissette Perez-Eraza at lgp@mapc.com.

Call to Worship

Rev. Jenny M. McDevitt

In the beginning, God said,

“Let there be light!”

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

In the beginning there was a story,

full of reconciliation and redemption, grace and Good News, light and life.

Prayer of Confession

Rev. Beverly A. Bartlett

Merciful God,

You have given us all the light we need,

but we still stumble around in the dark.

We read your Word and interpret it to our own liking.

We don't read carefully enough, missing how you are in the details.

We focus too narrowly, missing the forest for the trees.

Help us to read always through the lens of your love,

which is for the whole world,

and each one of us.

(Silent Prayer)

*Affirmation of Faith

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.
 And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord;
 who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried;
 he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead;

he ascended to heaven and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost;

the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Aaronic Benediction (11:15 am)

Weaver

The Lord bless you and keep you,
the Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you;
the Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace. Amen.

Anthem (11:15 am)

Star in the South

Polish Folk Tune
arr. Malcolm Sargent (1895-1967)

Who can name that bright flame which the Wise Men saw that night?

Was it some God-sent glow, or a splendid star we know?

Southward they sallied from Jerusalem:

What was the star stood over Bethlehem?

Star on the hilltop shining like a gem,

Are you the star that led to Bethlehem?

Low and high in the sky many lights amaze the eye:

All the days we must praise Him who made the heavens blaze.

Yet we believe some radiant stranger

Stood in the south above the manger.

Star on the hilltop ...

Let us, then, troubled men, humble men and reverent,

Seek a spark in the dark, and salute the firmament,

For the same light that halted on the hill

Brightens the night of all the nations still.

Star on the hilltop ...

– A. P. Herbert (1890-1971)

Cover Art

The painting, Shining Hope, is by Lauren Wright Pittman of A Sanctified Art, LLC. The image was inspired by Matthew 2:7-12. Lauren writes: “After a long journey, the star hovers, suspended over the wise men’s destination. Shining Hope imagines the joy of this moment and reminds us to revel in the wonder of the journey ourselves.”
