This Sunday

Meet the Composer & Hear the ‘Premiere’!

This Sunday morning, February 4, we will welcome Minnesota composer Jocelyn Hagen to MAPC. Ms. Hagen will be the presenter at our 10:10 am Christian Education series program, describing her work as a composer and her approach to setting texts. The Church Choir will be present to offer a special “sneak preview” of Ms. Hagen’s new work, Have You Not Heard — the first commission made possible through a special music endowment fund provided by longtime MAPC members, Gordon and Lillian Hardy. At the 11:15 am service that day, we will hear the official ‘premiere’ of her new work—a setting of a text from Isaiah appointed for the Fifth Sunday after Epiphany. For more information about Jocelyn Hagen and her compositions, please visit: www.jocelynhagen.com.

Annual Congregational Meeting—February 4

The annual meeting of the congregation Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church will take place after the 11:15 service on Sunday, February 4. The meeting will hear reports from the committees and programs of the church. It will also vote on candidates for elders, deacons, and trustees, as well as any motions regarding by-laws. We will meet in the Parish Hall, where sandwiches will be served. Childcare is available.

Candidates for Elder: Class of 2021 (all for a second term)

Curtis Field, Edmund Herrold, Kathy Hoffman, Barbara Iverson, Dorothy Kleinert

Candidates for Deacon: Class of 2021 (all for a second term)

Susan Anderson, John Carr, Karen Jolis, Pat Jones, Joyce Kadzakumanja, Patricia O’Connell, Cesar Rochez, Alicia Sheen

Candidates for Trustee:

Class of 2020: Chris Trinkka (to fill a vacant unexpired term); Class of 2021: (for a second term) Mark Coles, Elaine Cook; (for a first term) Mark Glotfelty, Jennifer Sterlacci

Candidates for the Congregational Nominating Committee: Andrew Forbis, Sharon Borsma, Lyn Baier, Noel Deewall, Julian Schroeder, Meg Johnson

In addition, three recommendations for changes in the by-laws will be made. 1) To decrease the size of the Session from 18 to 15, the size of the Deacons from 30 to 24, and the size of the Trustees from 15 to 12. This will be accomplished by attrition. 2) To consider any member of a board who has failed to attend 60% of the board’s meetings in a given year without excused absences to have resigned. 3) To elect six people to the Congregational Nominating Committee, with one those being elected as an alternate in the case that one of the first five cannot serve.

The Rev. Jenny McDevitt Elected Pastor/Head of Staff

On January 21, 2018 at a special congregational meeting following the 11:15 am service, the Pastor Nominating Committee presented its recommendation to the congregation to elect the Rev. Jenny McDevitt as the new Pastor/Head of Staff of Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church. The Committee gave a detailed report explaining why Jenny was their choice, and how they decided upon her after an eighteen-month search. Many questions were taken from the congregation, and the vote was taken. Jenny was overwhelmingly affirmed.

If you were unable to be here on the 21st, you can watch a video recording of Jenny's sermon here.

Jenny is a native of Michigan, and a graduate of Kenyon College and Union Presbyterian Theological Seminary in Richmond, VA. She served as a Minister in Residence at First Presbyterian Church, Ann Arbor, MI, under a fellowship funded by the Lilly Foundation, and then as an Associate Pastor in Virginia Beach, VA. For the last five years, she has been Pastor of Pastoral Care at the Village Presbyterian Church in Prairie Village, KS, a church of five thousand members.

At the reception for MAPC members on Saturday, January 20, Jenny told us a bit about herself, and you can read what she shared here.

On January 30, she was examined by the Presbytery of NY and taken into membership of the Presbytery. After leave taking from Village, and moving to New York, where she will live in the manse, her first Sunday will be April 8.

We are all delighted and have great hopes in all that she will bring to MAPC. We also all give our deepest thanks to the Pastor Nominating Committee for their dedicated, selfless, and careful work over the last year and a half.
