This Sunday

Adult Education, 10:10 am, Dana Chapel

This Sunday, Dr. James “Jim” Kay, Academic Dean of Princeton Theological Seminary will present, “Sundays in New York: Worship at MAPC.”

Our talk and follow-up discussion will focus on the 1991 Presbyterian Book of Common Worship Service for the Lord’s Day; including, the development of set liturgies in American Presbyterianism, the impact of Vatican II on Presbyterian worship, and the resulting ecumenical convergence on the recurring features of Christian worship on the Lord’s Day.

His discussion of Presbyterian Worship will continue next Sunday with, “Sundays in New York: Whither Presbyterian Worship?” As we discover, how can set liturgical texts also be celebrated flexibly to embrace “American expressions” from “puritan,” “evangelical,” and “frontier” traditions? Do we really have to remain stuck with the separation of “classic” versus “contemporary” worship that is dividing many congregations? Some examples will be shared, not as prescriptions, but as “discussion starters”.

Music on Madison: Amuse Singers

This Sunday at 3 pm, we welcome Amuse — an acclaimed small vocal ensemble founded in 2003 to bring music written for women’s voices to New York audiences. In their inventive program entitled “Weather Reports,” you will take a walk through fog, wind, rain and snow, all from the comfort of your seat! Miklos Kocsar’s setting of Carl Sandberg poems sets the atmosphere, along with three commissioned pieces and works of Esenvalds, Chilcott, Holst, Britten and more. Admission is $25 ($20—Students/Seniors); Children 12 and under: free. Will Call tickets are available in advance online.

Farewell Luncheon for Eric Springsted, March 11, 1 pm in the Parish Hall

Eric's last Sunday with us will be Easter. We will have a luncheon to say farewell and thank you for his 2 1/2 years of service, leading us through this time of transition, after the 11:15 service on Sunday, March 11. Please come celebrate Eric's time with us and wish him and Brenda well as they move into retirement. Children are welcome and we will have a craft table for them. The suggested donation for lunch is whatever you would like to give!

Lenten Series Led by Dr. Eric Springsted Wednesdays Through March 21, 6:30-8:30 pm, Parish Hall "Living Life Sacramentally: Faith and the Importance of the Imagination"

We hear arguments for and against Christian faith. But arguments, at best, test our faith. At its real heart is the ability for us to imagine, to see the world as being God's creation, including seeing a sacrifice at its core. In these five sessions, we will look at what role the religious imagination plays in our living faith, especially in living life sacramentally, that is, as a way of partaking in God's own life by engaging God's presence in the world. This will also consider how important the arts—poetry, music, painting and sculpture are to religious faith. They are not just window dressing, but expressions of what can be seen in God's world.

Session III: March 7—Presbyterianism: Sacramental or Revivalist?

Session IV: March 14—The Mystical Presence

Session V: March 21—The World as Sacrament

Come at 6:30 with a sandwich. We provide beverages. The program begins at 7 pm.

Moms' Night Out—Monday, March 5 at 7 pm

MAPC Moms—let's go to dinner! It's been a while since we have gotten together. All moms are welcome to a relaxed evening out at an Upper Eastside Restaurant. We'll choose the restaurant when we have an idea of how many are coming. RSVP at Wendy De Los Santos in the church offices, wds@mapc.com.

Pizza and Game Night, Friday, March 9, Teens and Tweens

Where is What? You may be familiar with the popular search-and-find books of "Where is Waldo", but did you know that MAPC is full of hidden treasures? Let's look and search together as we discover the mysteries of our church building.

At this Pizza and Game night, we will have pizza to enjoy, a scavenger hunt through the building, and we will enjoy our favorite games! We look forward to seeing you there. To sign up, please email Christina Cosby, cac@mapc.com.

Highlights of the February Session Meeting

The Session met in regular session on February 27, 2018. In light meeting, the session discussed what its expectations were once the new pastor arrives, and how they can support her and work with her best. Additionally, the Session moved that Rutgers Church be the recipient of the Easter offering to help it settle two Afghan families they are sponsoring, and that the offering from Ash Wednesday and Holy Week Services go into the Charles Amstein Pastoral Care Fund.

One Great Hour of Sharing Special Offering, Throughout Lent

This Lent we will continue the tradition at MAPC of collecting the One Great Hour of Sharing Offering on Palm Sunday. On select Sundays during Lent, you will find an envelope for this offering in your bulletin. Please return the envelope with your contribution to the church anytime during the Lent and Easter seasons.

The PC (U.S.A.) uses this offering as a means to connect with the global church. It is through this special collection that the church shares God's love with our neighbors in need around the world. It provides relief to those recently affected by natural disasters, provides food to the hungry, and opportunities to empower the poor and oppressed.

You can find an interactive map of the span of recipients from this offering here: <http://specialofferings.pcusa.org/oghs.html>.

Please—no glass containers. You can drop off items in the grocery carts in the Church House Lobby or the Sanctuary Narthex, or you could even order groceries to be delivered through one of your grocers. ## Clothing Donations Needed for Women and Men

The Homeless Outreach Program at Jan Hus Presbyterian Church, one of MAPC's long-term outreach partners, continues to see a dramatic increase of homeless persons seeking assistance. If you have clothing items in clean and neat condition, we encourage you to take them to the Jan Hus Clothes Pantry at 351 East 74th Street at 1st Avenue. The clothes pantry is available to take donations Monday through Saturday from 8 am-8pm and on Sunday from 9 am-3:30 pm.
