

The Pastoral Staff Letter

A Note From Jenny

Dear Friends,

Earlier this week, the Presbytery of New York City gave final approval to the worship service that will install me as your Senior Pastor and Head of Staff. There hasn't been any doubt that the event would take place, but as Presbyterians, we are very connectional...which means we don't often do things by ourselves. Though this sometimes slows down our efficiency, in the end it makes us stronger and wiser.

All of which is to say—I hope you will join me on Sunday, September 23, at 3 pm in our Sanctuary. The New York City Children's Chorus is participating, the MAPC choir is debuting two new (to us) pieces, some of my previous colleagues from other churches will help lead worship, and through it all, we will celebrate the ways God is moving here at Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church. We have made an effort to ensure that the entire church family feels welcome, including kids. There will be a special bulletin for children, a time for children and youth in the worship service and kid-friendly items at the reception following the service in the Parish Hall.

It is a tremendous honor to be your pastor. In our short time together, we've been through a lot—the decision to keep our Overnight Shelter open, the installation of a sprinkler system in the Church House, the arrival of new staff members, a flood on several floors of the Church House. 16 new members, two baptisms, and the list goes on and on. I cannot wait to see what the next years hold. (I hope and pray we are done with floods.) I know this much: there will be joys and sorrows, dreams realized and challenges faced, careful planning and unforeseen surprises. Above all, I know that we will face it together, and that God will be in the midst of it with us.

I hope you can join us on September 23—both in the morning, and at 3 pm!
Peace,

Jenny

This Sunday

Adult Education: Faces of Our Faith, 10:10 am, Parish Hall

Faces of Our Faith appear throughout scripture, and they include us too. One way we see the lives of Biblical characters reflected in our world is through spiritual practices. Come join us during this education hour as we explore the lectionary text through Lectio Divina.

Learn More About MAPC's Shelter

According to the Coalition for the Homeless census, nearly 64,000 men, women, and children slept in a NYC shelter each night by the end of 2017. No doubt, an overwhelming number that tears at our hearts. Thankfully, MAPC is highly aware and active in providing a shelter for about 12 men caught in the brutal system of poverty. Therefore, all of you are invited to learn more about MAPC's nightly shelter at the Outreach Committee's Shelter Open House this Sunday, September 16th from 1-3 p.m. Come and educate yourself on the ins and outs of the shelter and homelessness. You attending will not automatically volunteer you, but it will give you an opportunity to know more about the city we live in and people we share it with. Please send any and all questions to Rebecca Heilman at rmh@mapc.com.

Other Events & Announcements

Pizza and Game Night, Next Friday, September 21, from 6-8 pm Church House

Join your church friends as we embark on another year of adventure Amazing Race style! Come join the games, as we have some friendly compaction while sharing food and fellowship. To RSVP email Christina Cosby at cac@mapc.com.

Installation Service for Jenny McDevitt

Next Sunday, on September 23, at 3 pm, Rev. Jenny McDevitt will be installed as our Senior Pastor. Join the Presbytery of New York City for worship and a celebratory reception to follow. Rev. Tom Are, Jr., Senior Pastor of Village Presbyterian Church (Jenny's previous congregation) will preach.

Welcome Our 2018-2019 Seminary Interns

Chesna Hinkley enjoys exploring ways that her passion for academics feeds her faith, alongside the life of a congregation.

Audrey Webber creatively engages scripture and is passionate about finding ways to make sure everyone feels welcomed and included in worship, by creating innovative worship experiences.

Welcome our 2018-2019 seminary interns from Princeton Theological Seminary. Chesna Hinkley and Audrey Webber have joined our pastoral staff, as they further explore their call to ministry and embark on their final year of seminary. Chesna and Audrey will lead us in worship, inspire us through adult education, and be active in the faith formation of our children. Their main responsibilities will be Sunday morning worship, Children's Worship, teaching during the 10:10 Christian Education Hour, and being active with our Kids Club program on Wednesday afternoons. They are eager to join us this Sunday and we are thrilled to welcome them into the life and ministry of MAPC!

A Note From Rebecca

...What an honor it is to finally be with you! And let me tell you, I am overjoyed to call this place and all of you my home.

I grew up in the small town of Valdese, North Carolina, where I was baptized and raised in Waldensian Presbyterian Church like my father, grandmother, and great grandfather....Your pastoral residency provides the space to learn, grow, and continue the journey of discernment. I often say, "I am walking and willing." And, as your first pastoral resident, I have never been more thrilled to walk with you and more willing to love you! So, for the next three years, will you walk with me on this journey through my humble learning moments and, frankly, willing to follow the Spirit, wherever she may take us? I sure am! I look forward to listening to your holy stories, embracing all those in need, and opening my heart to this church and God's urban ministry!

With Love and Peace,

Rebecca Halman

Saint Andrew Music Society: Announcing Our 54th Season

The Saint Andrew Music Society's 54th Season brochure has been sent off to the printers! While we await receiving the mailing, you can peruse all fifteen concerts taking place this season on our website, ranging from performances by our very own choral society—the Saint Andrew Chorale & Orchestra; MAPC's community children's chorus program—the New York City Children's Chorus; students from The Juilliard School, Mannes College, and the Manhattan School of Music; and a host of recitals featuring vocalists and chamber ensembles.

Singing at MAPC

Are you interested in singing with the Church Choir, or our choral society, the Saint Andrew Chorale? The Church Choir sings anthems and provides musical leadership for our 11:15 am services and special liturgies from September through May. The Saint Andrew Chorale sings concerts as a part of the Saint Andrew Music Society concert season, often joined by orchestras and accompanied by professional instrumentalists. Rehearsals for both the Church Choir and Saint Andrew Chorale resume today, Thursday, September 6. If you are interested, visit the Choirs page on our website, or contact Andrew Henderson: ah@mapc.com, or 212-288-8920.

Dinner with Mayada, Monday Evening, October 15 at 6 pm

The Congregational Nurture Committee is delighted to host our third annual Dinner with Mayada. Mayada Anjari is a refugee from Syria, who, along with her family, has resettled in Jersey City with the help of Rutgers Presbyterian Church. Mayada is a wonderful cook, and Dinners with Mayada support her family as they establish their lives in the United States. The cookbook we have been waiting for will be available at this dinner! We got an advance copy in the mail, and it is stunning! Food and Wine lists it as one of the best cookbooks coming out this fall:

<https://www.foodandwine.com/news/fall-cookbooks>. The book is $24.95, and Mayada will happily sign copies. You can preview it here: <https://www.breadandsaltbetweenus.org/>

The cost of dinner is $40 for adults, and $20 for children under 12. Since this is a benefit dinner, we encourage you to pay the full price, if possible. If the full $40 is not possible for you, please pay what you can, and the committee will subsidize the rest. The event is BYOB, and we encourage you to bring a bottle of wine to share—we also encourage you to invite friends! You can reserve your seat and pay for dinner here. You can pay for both the dinner and the number of books you want at the same time. When you reserve, please let us know if you would like a book, so we will know how many to have on hand. RSVP through the MAPC website, or by emailing Lissette Perez-Erazo in the church offices, lgp@mapc.com, or by signing up during fellowship hour in the weeks prior to October 15.

We will plan on starting the program around 9:30 am on Saturday, depending on when the bus arrives.

We will end Saturday afternoon by 4 pm.

We have reserved a bus for those coming for the day on Saturday. The bus will leave MAPC at 7:45 am and depart Holmes to return to NYC at 4 pm. The roundtrip cost for the bus is $50.

Please note, transportation costs are in addition to the retreat costs listed above.

We will have a separate children's program on Saturday morning, while the adults share in discussion, then everyone will enjoy lunch together and afternoon activities of their choice: hiking, playing gaga (ask a kid, if you don't know what this is!) chatting on the porch, or playing games.

If you have questions, please contact Lissette Perez-Erazo at lgp@mapc.com

Each Sunday, we share the importance of this liturgy and pattern of life with our younger generation as we worship in an interactive way. This valuable time for our families is made possible by your help! Sign-up and come experience worship in a new way!

We'll mix in some games, crafts, service options, and other activities from time to time, too. Haven't joined us on Wednesday nights before? This is the perfect chance to change that. ## Bible Studies at MAPC

Reading Through the Bible:

Wednesdays, 12:30 pm-1:30 pm, Phillips Lounge

Reading Through the Bible picks up in Proverbs 12 on September 19.

20s/30s Group: (Next Meeting is Thursday, September 27)

2nd and 4th Thursdays, 6:00-8:00 pm, Youth Lounge

Across culture and time, food and wine have been enjoyed by many. This is no different throughout Scripture. This fall we are going to look at the importance of table fellowship and the production of wine in scripture as we begin a new year. Come, as we sample food, wine, and non-alcoholic beverages from different regions around the world and discover their Biblical roots.

Women's Bible Study: (Next Meeting is Monday, September 24)

2nd and 4th Mondays, 6:30 pm, Phillips Lounge

The minor prophets, who are they? What do they have to say to us today? These are the same questions we asked as we wondered what to study next. Come learn with us as we begin this new study! Joel has already surprised us as he values the rituals of worship.

Join us at 6:30 pm every other Monday or come early with a bit to eat as we enjoy fellowship with one another. We cannot wait to see you there!

Stay Connected to Worship at MAPC

Did you know that even if you're away or unable to make it to church that you can listen to Sunday worship services at MAPC? Sermons and service highlights (including scripture lessons, hymns and anthems) are uploaded afterwards, and are permanently accessible. They can be downloaded to your electronic device or listened to directly on MAPC's website: peruse this valuable online resource today! Once ready for print, our Sunday bulletins are also uploaded to our website on Thursday afternoons and are made permanently available for download.

Clothing Donations Needed for Women and Men

The Homeless Outreach Program at Jan Hus Presbyterian Church, one of MAPC's long-term outreach partners, continues to see a dramatic increase of homeless persons seeking assistance. Both casual and business clothing for men and women, as well as new undergarments, are among their most urgent needs. If you have clothing items in clean and neat condition, we encourage you to take them to the Jan Hus Clothes Pantry at 351 East 74th Street at 1st Avenue. The clothes pantry is available to take donations Monday through Saturday from 8 am-8pm and on Sunday from 9 am-3:30 pm. NOTE: Please bring all clothing to Jan Hus directly—clothing may no longer be left in the coatroom off of the MAPC Church House Lobby.

Give Some Love to the New York Common Pantry Grocery Carts

Far too often, a basic human necessity like food is expensive and scarce, especially in New York City. The New York Common Pantry works each year to reduce stress in people's lives by providing a pantry to those in need. The pantry continues to ask for your help! They need canned or dried beans, canned chicken/salmon/tuna, rice, dried pasta, fresh or canned vegetables, and peanut butter. We simply ask for no glass containers! You may drop your items off in the provided grocery carts found in the Church House Lobby or the Sanctuary Narthex. Or, since we are busy people in a busy city, you may also order groceries to be delivered to the New York Common Pantry (8 East 109th Street, New York, NY, 10029, Phone: 917-720-9700) by one of your grocers. Know that any items you give will not only impact a family, but also a child's life. And we are most thankful for that!

Hands-on Ministries

Ways to get involved at MAPC with hands and hearts!

"Faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead." The following opportunities to participate in hands-on ministries are provided by the Outreach Committee. If you are interested in exploring any of these opportunities, e-mail Christina Cosby at cac@mapc.com. Let's put our faith into action!

The Thursday Open Table Needs YOU!

Can you spare 2 hours on a Thursday evening from 6-8 pm? If so, then you can help feed 120 hungry neighbors a hot meal, offering them Christian hospitality. Please contact Kathy Hoffman at

kfhoffman@earthlink.net to volunteer for this opportunity (formerly known as Shelter Dinner)

Host at the Shelter

Hosts are needed for the Shelter! The Shelter is comfortable and the experience of helping these men get their lives back on track is one that will change your heart. Two shifts are offered each evening. Early evening hosts volunteer from 6:30 pm to 8:30 pm; overnight hosts volunteer from 8:30 pm to 7 am. Contact Christina Cosby at cac@mapc.com for more information.

Search and Care

Can you spend an afternoon with an elderly person on the Upper Eastside to walk their pet, go with them to a doctor's appointment, help them shop, balance their checkbook or even just offer them the gift of companionship? If so, contact Robin Strashun at SandC@searchandcare.org.

New York Common Pantry

The New York Common Pantry offers opportunities for volunteers to help pack and distribute food to the working poor on Saturday mornings and other times each week. MAPC has supported this very well-organized and effective organization since its inception 30 years ago. This is a wonderful way to follow Christ's command to "feed my sheep!"
